Church Letter

*From Sandra Ward
Associate Priest*

Recently I attended a CAP (Christians Against Poverty) meeting for the Eden Valley. I had not thought about debt counselling and befriending as part of pastoral care but it is very relevant. It can assist people who may be struggling and in isolation with their debt. Apparently, they have had referrals from our own parishes.

What is pastoral care? According to Google it is "an ancient model of emotional and spiritual support that can be found in all traditions and cultures". Of course, in our modern context it is described as, "trained carers that support people in their pain, loss and anxiety, and their triumphs, joys and victories."

To put in my own words and experience, it is walking alongside and being with people in times of sadness or of joy. Being with someone or listening to them is important for that person. There are many different types of care but pastoral care is the activity that erupts from the attitude of loving one another,

Jesus said: "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another." (John 13: 34-35)

It is not easy to be a disciple of God but through our baptism we are all called to be disciples and part of the discipleship is God's call to us to be part of His restoring work. We are all pastoral carers of each other: family, friends, neighbours, colleagues or the community. Although I am Chaplain at Penrith hospital, I do not carry out this role alone. I have a wonderful team of volunteers who regularly visit hospital to administer Holy Communion by the bedside, or visit patients regularly at other times to talk and listen to them. This is just part of who they are, carers for others, disciples of God; and this is their mission.

However, let us remember that it is not just those who wear the badge or who have a particular job role who are the pastoral carers. As part of our discipleship we are all carers of each other. Remember this when you are next visiting a neighbour and bringing the joy of the Gospel to them or perhaps praying for someone. Frank Wright in his book, Pastoral Care Revisited, said:

"The enduring feature of pastoral care for Christians is the motivation to reflect God's unconditional love to others, and it is the most effective evangelistic tool we possess."

You are a pastoral carer and an evangelist. Pastoral care is not just about ministering to one another but about revealing Jesus, and ultimately co-operating with God's mission of love through Christ and His Spirit. It is not just the 'Vicar's job'!

God bless

Sandra

A VIEW FROM TEBAY

*Rosemary Campbell
Local Lay Minister*

Well, it is not a pretty one as I write this! It's pouring down and blowing a gale.

I have just enjoyed a week in Slovenia (formerly Yugoslavia). We had sunshine every day. It was lovely to admire their beautiful countryside full of changing colours of the trees from oranges to reds and yellows. We were at Zreče in the North East amongst the hills. The people used all the land for growing grapes, vegetables etc.; not one bit was wasted. Being a member or the Craft Workshop in Sedbergh I was fortunate to have been invited in an exchange of artists. We were kept busy with painting, printing and jewellery making. There was plenty of eating, drinking and lots of lovely music (too much of it in national dress). I have never seen so many accordions, even some which lit up, and made in the most dynamic colours and patterns. Our hosts were so caring and made our week such a highlight of the year for us.

One of the things I liked about it was that it was a cultural area very like Tebay. It had some industry including tool making and wine making. The folks were just like you and me. As in Tebay they cared for each other and supported one another. You do not find that in many areas these days. In the winter there is a ski resort nearby. Zreče is well known as a spa town. I noted that there were quite a few folks in neck braces and with crutches who must have been there for treatment of every kind and very specialised.

This week two other important days have occurred. Mental Health Day, and the 20th anniversary of the death of the singer/songwriter John Denver in a plane crash. He wrote Annie's Song, Country Roads, and Leaving on a Jet Plane, as well as many, many more. He was an excellent guitarist and singer and did much for the environment, hunger and peace.

His songs have helped many: an old school friend of mine was really struggling with her circumstances in Liverpool in the 70's, and some one lent her a couple of cassettes of John's music; and that kept her going through those difficult days.

John had problems with alcohol and was depressed after his father died. At one concert he shared how he stopped his car and felt really down. He remembered his many fans and the support they gave him. Out of that experience he wrote "Perhaps Love" which he sometimes sang with Plácido Domingo.

Music can be a great healer and encourager for all of us. I am sure you can name songs that have helped you through life. So I will close with those words from that great Abba song, "Thank you for the music, the songs I'm singing; thanks for all the joy they're bringing. Who can live without it? I ask in all honesty, what would life be? Without a song or a dance what are we? So I say thank you for the music – for giving it to me!"

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

The National Act of Remembrance at the Cenotaph takes place every year on the 11th Day of November at 11.00. It could be described as a sacred event that rarely happens in the life of the nation on a regular basis. In recent years this Remembrance has come into focus in a way perhaps not experienced before. Partly it is because of the 100th anniversary of the WW1, the diminishing numbers of WW2 veterans and recent casualties of the wars in the Gulf and Afghanistan.

This year I have suggested we do our utmost in our parishes to be part of that National Act of Remembrance by all observing the 11.00 start and two minutes silence with the majority of the British Isles and the Armed Forces. To this end and because we have enough Ministers to conduct the services at the same time I have asked for all our Remembrances to start at 10.55am gathering around our respective war memorial and boards. There may be local variations to fit in with this but I hope very much you will be able to join us in this sacred duty to remember those who have made the ultimate sacrifice.

CHRISTMAS CHOIR

On Sunday 17th December, at 6.30 p.m., at All Saints' Church, Orton, we will have our Carols by Candlelight service.

For some years the music has been led by a choir of some 24 voices, with members from various churches and different denominations. We want to do that again this year – this time, we hope, including an item sung by a Children's Choir! So we issue this invitation to take part.

Music: I am planning that we will sing two items by the whole choir, the children's choir song, and the familiar congregational carols, some of them with descants.

Rehearsals: There will be two short practices for the children's choir at 3.30 p.m. at Orton School – dates to be arranged. Practices for the whole Choir will be at 7.30 p.m. in the schoolroom of Orton
Methodist Church, as follows:

Thursday 2nd November

Friday 10th November

Tuesday 21st November

Thursday 30th November

Tuesday 5th December

Response: If you would like to take part, including coming to at least three rehearsals, please contact me, Christopher Jenkin:

chriscjenkin@aol.com. Tel: 015396 24410.

100 YEARS OF ORTON CHURCH BELLS

On the 6th October 2017, exactly 100 years to the day since a consecration service was held for the installation of the 8 bells at All Saints' Church, Orton, a group of about 25 ringers from various towers around Cumbria joined together for an evening of ringing. A buffet supper was provided. The group sang 'Happy Birthday' while the cake was cut and a special hymn, prepared for the event by the local choir, was also sung.

For the bells of All Saints' Orton,
Thanks be to God.

Ringings peals across the ages,
Thanks be to God.

For the Ringers crafting Changes,
Bobs and Singles, Grandsire Doubles,
For their love and dedication,

For the fellowship and friendship

formed entwined with ropes and sallies,

Orton Churchyard Conservation Project

Wood Chippings: With the help of our valiant team we have very nearly finished clearing up the great heaps of wood chippings, left from the felling of all the Leylandii and the grinding of their stumps. The work party scheduled for 13th October had to be cancelled as the rain was tipping down!

Stumps: The two massive stumps that are left are to be shifted into the north-west corner, where they will form a stumpery, and where some shrubs will also be planted - watch this space (and that space!).

Tree planting: We have several native hardwood trees, which we hope to plant before the end of November; and one or two more are awaited. A birch tree which was donated with bare roots has already been planted, and may or may not survive - we will see in the spring.

Bird feeder: A 3-armed, adjustable height, iron bird-feeder was made by Roland Woof and fixed to the wooden fence. A local family have agreed to recharge it each week with nuts, seeds and fat balls.

Notes from the Herald, November 1917

Average, colder. Passchendale fell to the British (both sides tired of the mud).

Orton School and Greenholme School pupils lined the road from Orton Hall to the Church for the funeral of Harvey Goodwin J.P. D.L., their Squire, on Monday 29th October. They stood outside Orton School as the coffin went by. Big do.

Orton and Tebay are in the South Association of the Westmorland Flockmasters of Sheep on the Pennines etc. They held a conference (for the whole Association, N and S) at Appleby in early November. Topics included "Who gets the unclaimed sheep - The lord of its manor? Or-?"

Tebay has typhoid, caught at Easington, Co.

Durham, by men working there but from Tebay.

One case also at Kirkby Stephen. "Tebay's Disgusting Sanitary State" topped the RDC's agenda.

The LNWR owns the terraces near the Station; they have earth closets only and ashpits (middens) last emptied in March and July 1917; now overflowing plus stench. The NUR's Tebay Branch wrote to the local Government Board in London; they (NUR) sent a copy to the RDC at Kirkby Stephen where it was read out. The Railway says it can't find a scavenger to clear them. The Doctor says they should all be on WCs and that earth closets should be cleared every eight weeks or less; and that typhoid beckons.

Tebay Primitive Methodist Church's annual Martinmas Concert is in the Assembly Hall, Tebay on Saturday 24th and temperance sermons in Church, Sunday 25th. (Martinmas = 11th November). Died at Woodend Terrace suddenly, Tuesday afternoon, 30th October, Mrs. William Askew, 65. Her parents first came to Loupsfell Cottages soon after the railway and its Steam Shed came - 1846. She was a Primitive Methodist; she was baking on Monday in her kitchen. On Tuesday afternoon her husband was writing to one of their sons in the Army reading each sentence to her as he wrote. Hearing no comment he looked round and found she'd half fallen out of her chair in a coma. Ravenstonedale Band of Hope lecture by two Kirkby Stephen men early November (doesn't say where). Ravenstonedale Congregational Church's annual Library Soirée there on Tuesday evening, 20th. Lecture by two Kendal men.

Westmorland War Agricultural Committee will pay the keep of any soldiers the farmers wish to train to plough for up to a month.

Thank you to Jeremy Godwin for the Notes.

Adult: £9 Conc.: £8 Child: £5 Family: £23

52 Skidoo are a 3 piece Harlem Swing band that perform their hit show 'The Joint is Jumpin'. The show is set in 1920's Harlem, and consists of live music from the era carefully woven into a story that encompasses engaging characters, comedy, dance and poetry. Classic favourites like 'Ain't Misbehavin', 'The Joint is Jumpin' and 'Your Feet's Too Big' are played alongside well known hits like 'Jeepers Creepers', 'Darktown Strutters Ball' and 'St Louis Blues' to create an authentic 1920/30's Harlem party atmosphere. They bring back to life the forgotten era of Prohibition, Speakeasy's, Vaudeville, Tin Pan Alley, Rent Parties, Stride Piano and Hot Jazz.

Biblical Names

An occasional series by Christopher Jenkin

Names go in fashions, and in recent years parents have started to call their children by names which are found in the Bible – though they are not always aware of that, nor of who the Bible character was.

Barnabas (Barnaby): Barnabas appears in the Book of Acts, as a friend and companion of Paul. His name was actually Joseph, and "Barnabas" was a nickname, meaning "Son of Encouragement", because this was his character – he was a really encouraging person to have around! He is first mentioned (Acts 4:36,37) as an example of a generous giver in the early church, having sold a field and donated the proceeds to the Apostles. Later he was the person who met the newly-converted persecutor of the church, Saul (later called Paul), and introduced him to the Christian leaders in Jerusalem when many people still feared and mistrusted Paul (Acts 9:27). Then, when large numbers of non-Jews started coming to faith in Christ in Antioch, it was Barnabas who realised that Paul should be involved in this work, knowing that at the time of his dramatic conversion (Acts 9:1-19) the Lord had specifically told Paul that his future ministry would be to take the Good News to the Gentiles, or non-Jews; so Barnabas went all the way to Tarsus to find Saul and bring him back to Antioch, and encouraged him to develop his ministry there. Subsequently Barnabas accompanied Saul/Paul on his journeys around Cyprus and Asia Minor. Where would the great and famous Paul have been without the encouragement offered by Barnabas?

CRIME PREVENTION / SAFETY ADVICE

Public asked to be vigilant following HMRC telephone scam – an elderly woman scammed out of £1,000

Police are continuing to receive calls from members of the public regarding a scam which attempts to gain money. The telephone scam relates to a caller purporting to be from HMRC, stating that prosecution action will be taken unless payment is made, specifically in the form of i-Tunes vouchers.

In the latest incident a Whitehaven woman in her late 80s bought £1,000 worth of i-Tunes vouchers in one of the town's supermarkets.

Police have also been contacted by a member of staff at a Carlisle supermarket, where 12 similar requests had been made in one day. Fortunately, in these incidents the potential victims were discouraged from handing over money.

A Cumbria Constabulary spokesperson said:

"We have received tens, if not hundreds of these calls over recent months and we want to advise people to be vigilant. Our advice is to politely decline to hand over any money and to take the details of the caller and contact HMRC on 0870 280 2566, ideally on a different phone, to check if it is an actual case or fraudulent.

"The HMRC website states they would never use these methods to tell you about a tax rebate, a penalty or even to get personal payment information.

"Anyone who comes across such a scam should contact Action Fraud at www.actionfraud.org.uk or contact the Action Fraud Hotline on 0300 123 2040 as they are the investigatory body for offences of this type."

2017 Winter Warmth Appeal

In a bad winter, 300 people die in Cumbria due to the effects of the cold weather, a fatality rate higher than most other areas of the UK and the elderly are among the most vulnerable.

Cumbria Community Foundation's Winter Warmth Appeal raises funds to help older people across the county stay protected from the cold weather.

The Winter Warmth Appeal, in partnership with in association with

Age UK across Cumbria, is now in its eighth year and in that time, through the warm generosity of others, has raised

£630,000. More than a thousand people who struggle to afford to heat their homes benefit each year. This year the charity hopes to raise £100,000 to help keep Cumbria's most vulnerable warm and well this winter.

The cost of fuel is rising and there are many old, rural homes in Cumbria which cost more to keep warm. It's becoming increasingly harder for people to afford to heat their homes, especially for those that no longer have a steady income. This is why the Winter Warmth Appeal has never been more important.

Please consider donating the Winter Warmth Appeal and help those who are having to choose between heating and eating.

You can donate online: <https://mydonate.bt.com/events/winter-warmth-2017> or send a cheque (made payable to: 'Cumbria Community Foundation' and write 'Winter Warmth' on the back) to: Cumbria Community Foundation, Dovenby Hall, Dovenby, Cockermouth, Cumbria, CA13 0PN. Or simply call 01900 825760 and we can take your donation over the telephone.

The Lion Tamer

A silent movie circus show for all ages

Orton Market Hall, Orton
 Saturday 18 November at 7.30pm

Award-winning Cornish performance company, Bash Street Theatre, travel from the most southerly to the most northerly counties to bring their silent movie, circus show to Orton Market Hall.

Inspired by the comic genius of Buster Keaton and Charlie Chaplin, The Lion Tamer has been specially designed to tour village halls and small-scale theatres. It's a melodrama full of action, pathos and silent comedy, combining circus skills, slapstick humour and live piano music to recreate a black and white movie from the golden age of the silver screen.

A 'two-bit' circus has arrived in town. It's run by a crooked showman and his long-suffering assistant, and they are running out of acts. So when a down-at-heel traveller arrives looking for work, he is given an audition. But he takes on more than he bargained for when he is persuaded to become a last-minute replacement for ... The Lion Tamer!
